Con-Terra Club Donates To Concord Rescue Squad

Shown in above photo are members of the Concord Rescue Squad, from left, President Charles Rath and Captain Wayne Adie with Mrs. W. W. Wariner, Jr., President and Mrs. Kenneth Walsh of the Con-Terra Woman's Club. Con-Terra presented the squad with a $400 oxygen rescuscitator, also shown in photo. The money was raised to purchase this piece of equipment through various club activities in which the Mobile Concession Stand was used, raffles and dances also helped in fund drives to help other organizations in the community.

"New Life Singers" In Concert March 11 at Bethel Bible Church

The "New Life Singers" will appear in concert Sunday, March 11th, at 7 p.m. at the Bethel Bible Church on Linden Street in Appomattox.

These musicians represent the Senior Saints ministry of Thomas Road Baptist Church in Lynchburg, home of the nationally televised Old Time Gospel Hour with Dr. Jerry Falwell.

Concert numbers will include hymn arrangements, gospel songs, and an audience sing-a-long. Soloists, small groups, and a special narrative will be featured.

This team of young men and women from Liberty Baptist Schools tour through the eastern United States presenting concerts with emphasis on senior adults.

The concert is open to the public. There is no admission charge.

You will receive a very kind and warm welcome from the church's pastor, David S. Grove.

District FFA Parliamentary Procedure Contest Set

First place junior and senior FFA parliamentary procedure teams from each of the five sub-districts of Southside Virginia will compete for the area championship, March 10, at Randolph-Henry High School.

Parliamentary proce d ure competition is a FFA leadership training activity. It includes demonstrating ceremonies for opening and closing meetings, and solving a parliamentary problem extemporaneously. Each team is composed of seven FFA members and an advisor.

M. L. Bailey, instructor of agricultural education in the host school, is in charge of local arrangements for the contest.

The Amherst - Appomattox - Campbell Federation will be represented by the Monelison Junior and the William Campbell Senior FFA chapter teams.

J. W. Morgan, Appomattox Middle School, will serve on the official scoring committee.

Hollywood

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity. 1 Cor. 16: 13-14.

HAPPINESS IS 4-H

By Frank H. Sweet
Extension Agent

All Senior 4-H members should be working towards District Contest on April 7 at ACHS. There are lots of opportunities in this program. The County Contest for Senior members will be held on Friday and Saturday, March 23 and 24 at the Extension Office in Appomattox. Senior members may present their demonstrations or illustrated talks on Friday afternoon, the 23rd from 3:30 to 8:00 p.m. or Saturday morning, the 24th, from 9:00 to 12:00 noon. Please call us if you need or wish help.

* * *

The 4-H Soils Team will have its first competition on Wednesday, March 28, after school. The special soils judging program is sponsored by the Robert E. Lee Soil and Water Conservation District and will involve several counties. Awards will be given. The following 4-H'ers are working with the Appomattox team: Ruby Smith, Blair Smith, Dale Glover, Sally Coleman, Glen McClenny, Carrell Almond, Cheryl Walton and Allen Smith. The team practices each Wednesday afternoon at the SCS Office after school. New members are welcome.

* * *

4-H members at Appomattox Elementary School finally had an opportunity to present their talent show for the school PTA this past Tuesday evening. Opportunities like this are good chances for 4-H'ers to develop their talents.
